▶ Academic Policies and Rules

Grading

- The student's academic performance is assessed according to four different criteria:

  Exams ◦ Assignments ◦ Attendance ◦ Class Participation

- KU academic regulations state all students must have a class attendance rate of at least one-third of all classes in order to earn a passing grade.

- Grading in ISC is based on an absolute assessment system.

- Generally, course performance is graded on the following 100-point scale:

95-100	90-94	85-89	80-84	75-79	70-74	65-69	60-64	0-59
A+	A	B+	B	C+	C	D+	D	F

- For credit transfers, please note that passing grades may vary for institutions.

- ISC does not interfere with assessments made by professors. Detailed grading policies are set by each professor. Students should refer to and abide by each professor's specific grading policies.

Confirmation for Final Grade

4-week	6-week
July 23rd, 13:00 – July 26th by 12:00 (KST)	August 6th, 13:00– August 9th by 12:00 (KST)

- You will be able to check your final grade on Blackboard during the confirmation period.

- Grading disputes are accepted during the confirmation period ONLY. Please make sure to confirm your final grade with professors within the period.

- Your grade can no longer be corrected once the grades have been confirmed after the confirmation period.

Course Evaluation

- All students must submit Course Evaluation twice. Students who complete and submit their course evaluations will be eligible to receive KU ISC 2024 transcript.

Mid-term Evaluation Period (Descriptive)	Final Evaluation Period (Overall)
July 1st – 7th (Both sessions)	July 22nd – 28th (4-week session) July 30th – August 9th (6-week session)

Transcript

▶ Tips for staying in Korea

Public Transportation

Seoul has one of the most convenient and easy to use public transportation systems in the world. Subways, buses, and trains run frequently on time and fares are very affordable. Website: http://m.seoul.go.kr/lang/main/index.do?lang=en

T-money

- T-money is a transportation card system, which is the simple means of paying for public transportation in Seoul. It will save you money when using public transportation.
- The benefits of using T-money:
  ① Easy to use and recharge
  ② Convenient
  ③ Applicable for subway, buses, and some taxis
  ④ Free transfer within 30 minutes between buses and subways.
  ⑤ Purchase at any convenience store for KRW 2,500 (CU, GS25, and 7-Eleven).

Subway

The subway system in Seoul is fast, clean, and convenient.

① The basic fare is KRW 1,500 (for T-money card user) with additional fees added depending on the distance you travel.
② Most signs are in Korean, English, and Chinese. Different lines are color-coded and all stations have unique assigned number designations.
③ Korea University's Campus is directly connected to the metro stations, Korea Univ. Station and Anam Station on Line # 6 (Brown Line).
④ To learn more about the subway system, please visit: http://www.seoulmetro.co.kr/eng/
